FOREWORD AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 1973 First British International Drawing Biennale represents a selection made by the jury from a total of 1500 drawings received in Teesside from 39 countries. This illustrates considerable support for the aim of the Biennale to promote good and original drawing. The organisers are grateful to all the artists whether successful or unsuccessful who have entered drawings for the exhibition. We hope to have their further support for the years to come. The Jury gave unsparingly of their time and many hours of concentration went into the selection of prize winners.
